We're smart, hard working and making cool stuff happen digitally.

Brandcube is a digital media agency helping startups and businesses deliver meaningful experiences to users of the modern world.

We're an independently owned, creative digital agency – forever curious and ready to transform the way business is done.

What we do

We are a team of passionate UI, UX designers, product managers, full stack developers and communication artists helping businesses of all sizes launch their next digital project.

Website Development

Our development team seamlessly brings designs to life. Our websites are future proof, fast and optimized for conversions

UI/UX Design

UX/UI design gives a product its style. We focus on beautiful, user-centred applications.

Photography

From product shoots to digital event photographic promotion, from model shoots to corporate coverage, we do it all.

Graphic Design

Offering a range of Graphic Design services including Social media creatives, Illustration, Design for Print and more.

Ecommerce

Have the ability to sell products online to your customers 24/7 via platforms like WooCommerce and Shopify.

Videography

Videos are quickly replacing a lot of content-heavy campaigns. We create dynamic video campaigns and also develop the advertising strategy around how to and when to use them.
